FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LINDA MOORE JOINS CIRRUS HEALTH AS IN HOUSE COUNSEL AND CHIEF COMPLIANCE OFFICER

Trophy Club, TX. – May 10, 2006....Cirrus Health, a premier developer and management company of ambulatory surgery centers and short-stay hospitals, today announced the appointment of Ms. Linda B. Moore as in-house counsel and chief compliance officer.

“Linda is driven by integrity and possesses a strong commitment to excellence,” said Tim Parris, chief executive officer for Cirrus Health. “I have every confidence she will continually raise the bar in our organization’s compliance adherence and provide sound counsel in all legal affairs.”

Moore most recently served as associate general counsel, contract professional, and director of physician recruitment, retention, and relations for Baylor Health Care System in Dallas, Texas. She was responsible for legal affairs regarding Information Technology, Human Resources, Labs, Material Management, and Clinical Pharmacy departments. Prior to her service at Baylor, Moore held the position of manager of corporate reimbursement at EmCare, Inc., a publicly held physician management corporation generating $235m net revenue annually. Moore was responsible for the supervision of managed care contracting, billing enrollments, coding and processing of medical records.

Moore is a member of the American Bar Association, Texas Bar Association, and the American Health Lawyers Association.

“I am excited to have joined the Cirrus Health team,” stated Moore. “This organization is committed to providing physicians and other healthcare professionals the necessary resources and support for the delivery of high-quality patient care. Compliance is critical in the healthcare industry and I look forward to assisting fellow team members and our partners through the processes.”
