HOSPITAL AT CRAIG RANCH GROUNDBREAKING CEREMONY

McKinney, TX...May 6, 2008 – The Surgery Centre at Craig Ranch is pleased to announce the groundbreaking of the hospital expansion will be held at noon on May 16, 2008 at the new hospital site in Craig Ranch, McKinney, Texas.

The 53,500 square foot, two-story hospital will be located adjacent to the north of the Michael Johnson Performance Center on Alma Road just north of Highway 121. The multi-specialty, acute care hospital is an extension and expansion of the services provided at the surgery center. The hospital allows physicians to perform more advanced, inpatient procedures. The surgery center will continue to serve outpatient surgical procedures as part of the Hospital at Craig Ranch.

The new hospital will host 7 operating suites, 19 pre-operative and post-operative beds, 4 intensive care units (ICU), and 20 private rooms. The hospital will have an emergency room suite and a 60,000 square-foot medical office building.

Opening of the hospital is targeted for summer 2009.
