FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOSPITAL AT CRAIG RANCH OFFICIALLY UNDERWAY

McKinney, TX...May 23, 2008 – The Hospital at Craig Ranch held its groundbreaking ceremony Friday, May 16, 2008. Attended by over 90 guests, the ceremony was a great kick-off to begin construction of the 53,500 square-foot, multi-specialty acute care hospital.

Mr. Jim Bryant, Administrator of the surgery center and the new hospital, opened the ceremony. Mr. Nathan Golik of The Cirrus Group thanked those organizations participating on the real estate and construction aspects of the facility. Mr. David Craig, President and CEO of Craig International and Mr. Thad Helsley, McKinney Mayor Pro Tem also said a few words welcoming the new facility to the area. Dr. William Burns spoke on behalf of the physicians who provide care at the surgery center and recognized the need for a hospital to better serve their patients.

Guests also included representatives of the McKinney Chamber of Commerce, the McKinney Economic Development Corporation, Congressman Sam Johnson's representative Ashlea J. Quinonez, Frisco City Councilman Mr. Tony Felker and physicians and staff of the Surgery Centre at Craig Ranch.

Operated by physicians and Cirrus Health, the hospital construction will be implemented through The Cirrus Group. The 53,500 square-foot, two-story hospital will be located adjacent to the north of the Michael Johnson Performance Center on Alma Road just north of Highway 121. The multi-specialty, acute care hospital is an extension and expansion of the services provided at the Surgery Centre at Craig Ranch. The hospital allows physicians to perform more advanced, inpatient procedures. The surgery center will continue to serve outpatient surgical procedures as part of the Hospital at Craig Ranch.

The new hospital will host 7 operating suites, 19 pre-operative and post-operative beds, 4 intensive care units (ICU), and 20 private rooms. The hospital will have an emergency room suite and a 60,000 square-foot medical office building.
